Cinderella: The Musical!

PASS Musical Theatre faculty proudly present Rodgers and Hammerstein's Cinderella. This version puts a new spin on the familiar story, introducing themes of human rights, social hierarchy and the power of self-confidence into the classic romantic, magical fairytale. The gorgeous score and lyrics from the infamous Musical theatre duo fill the stage with glorious melodies, and our students bring the work to life with sparkling characterisation and choreography thanks to the artistic team of Saunderson and Jennings.

When: 11th & 12th May; 2pm / 7pm

Where: PASS Theatre, Edinburgh College

Cost: £10, £8 (conc), £6 (EC Student)

Beats by Kieran Hurley

In 1994 the Criminal Justice Act effectively outlawed raves, banning public gatherings around amplified music characterised by the emission of a succession of repetitive beats.’ Featuring a banging soundtrack and psychedelic 90s-inspired visuals, Beats tells the story of Johnno McCreadie, a teenager living in a small suburban Scottish town at the time of the Act. Beats is an award-winning new play by Kieran Hurley; a coming-of-age story exploring rebellion, apathy, and the irresistible power of gathered youth.

Foundation Photography Portfolio Showcase

The full time Foundation Photography course students will showcase their portfolios for one night only! Please join us over at the Sighthill campus on Tuesday 7th June 2022, The Atrium, from 6pm – 8.30pm. Students, friends, family, staff and members from industry are invited along to celebrate the endeavours of the graduating students. There will be refreshments provided and a chance to discuss the work with the budding creatives. The Foundation course introduces both the technical and creative aspects of photography. Students work from tutor led briefs and are directed through a creative process. The briefs are pitched at a beginner’s level and include scope to grow both soft and hard skills. Portraiture, Advertising and Reportage are just some of the genres covered.

A Gambler's Guide to Dying

"How lucky are you?
What are the odds that you will leave behind an extraordinary legacy?
If you hit the jackpot, what would you do?

This is a story of a boy and his Grandad who wins a fortune on the 1966 world cup and decides to chance his luck and gamble it on himself.

Will it pay out? Or does the house always win?

Written by Gary McNair"
