GUIDE TO INFORMATION AVAILABLE THROUGH OUR MODEL PUBLICATION SCHEME

1.1 General information about Edinburgh College

The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA) requires Scottish public authorities to produce and maintain a publication scheme.

Authorities are under a legal obligation to:

- Publish the classes of information that they make routinely available
- Tell the public how to access the information and what it might cost

Edinburgh College has adopted the Model Publication Scheme (MPS) 2017 produced by the Scottish Information Commissioner and has notified the Commissioner that we have done so. Thereafter, no further notification is required unless either:

- The Commissioner has revoked approval (because the college is not complying with the MPS) or
- The College's legal status has changed (e.g. through a merger with another authority or a legal change of name)

You can see this scheme on the Commissioner's website at: <http://www.itspublicknowledge.info/mps>

The purpose of this Guide to Information is to:

- Allow you to see what information is available (and what is not available) in relation to each class
- State what charges may be applied
- Explain how you can find the information easily
- Provide contact details for enquiries and to get help with accessing the information
- Explain how to request information we hold that has not been published

Edinburgh College has arrangements in place to regularly and routinely update this Guide to Information. Some common good practice approaches being implemented by the college to review and maintain our guide include:

- Setting review dates as part of the approval process
- Training staff to think about publication as they prepare information ('thinking FOI' as they write, marking information for redaction at publication)
- Making the decision to publish information a deliberate step when new information is approved

- Incorporating processes for checking and updating the Guide to Information as part of the procedures for updating and reviewing documents and records management procedures and systems

Availability and formats

The information we publish through the Model Publication Scheme is, whenever possible, available on our website. We offer alternative arrangements for people who do not want to or cannot access the information online or by inspection at our premises. For example, we usually arrange to send information to you in paper copy (although there may be a charge for this).

Edinburgh College also considers its duties under the Equality Act 2010 when responding to requests for information in alternative formats.

Exempt Information

We will publish the information we hold that falls within the classes of information below. If a document contains information that is exempt under Scotland's freedom of information laws (for example sensitive personal information or a trade secret), we may remove or redact the information before publication but we will explain why.

Copyright

Where Edinburgh College holds the copyright in its published information, the information may be copied or reproduced without formal permission, provided that:

- It is copied or reproduced accurately,
- It is not used in a misleading context, and
- The source of the material is identified.

Where Edinburgh College does not hold the copyright in information we publish, we will make this clear.

Charges

This section explains when we may make a charge for our publications and how any charge will be calculated.

We may charge for providing information, e.g., photocopying and postage, but we will charge you no more than it actually costs us to do so. We will always tell you what the cost is before providing the information to you.

Our photocopying charge per sheet of paper is shown in the tables below:

Postage costs will be recharged at the rate we pay to send the information to you.

When providing copies of pre-printed publications, we will charge no more than the cost per copy of the total print run.

Charges for information not available under the scheme:

The charges for information that is available under this scheme are set out in the Charging Policy section of this document. If you submit a request to the College for information that is not available under the scheme the charges will be based on the following calculations:

General information requests:

- There will be no charge for information requests that cost the College £100 or less to process.
- Where information costs between £100 and £600 to provide you may be asked to pay 10% of the cost. That is, if you were to ask for information that costs the College £600 to provide, you would be asked to pay £50. This is calculated on the basis of a waiver for the first £100 and 10% of the remaining £500.
- The College is not obliged to respond to requests which will cost it over £600 to process.
- In calculating any fee, staff time will be calculated at actual cost per staff member's hourly salary rate to a maximum of £15 per person per hour.
- The College will not charge for the time to determine whether it holds the information requested, nor for the time it takes to decide whether the information can be released. Charges may be made for locating, retrieving and providing information to you.
- In the event that the College decides to impose a charge it will issue you with notification of the charge (a fees notice) and how it has been calculated. You will have three months from the date of issue of the fees notice in which to decide whether to pay the charge. The information will be provided to you on payment of the charge. If you decide not to proceed with the request there will be no charge to you.
