Course Information

The core programme General English consists of 15 hours per week of English Language study.

Students on our Intensive English programme can choose to complement the General English course with either English Plus (5 hours per week) or IELTS Preparation (5 hours per week – for students of Intermediate level and above).

Students on all courses can choose to join our Social & Cultural Programme.

Accommodation & lunch packages (per week)

Homestay Accommodation	Half-Board	Single Room	£180
		Shared Room*	£150
	Self-Catering	Single Room	£150
Lunch in the College cafeteria	Monday – Friday		£35

We can arrange homestay accommodation for students while they study with us. There are two types of homestay available: Half-board - breakfast and evening meal included; Self-catering - students prepare their own meals.

Please note:

- Homestay accommodation is normally booked from Sunday to Sunday. Additional nights will be charged extra and we cannot guarantee they will be with the same host.
- Shared rooms can only be provided where two students of the same gender and similar age apply together.

Airport Transfer Service (one-off fee)

Airport Transfer	Arrival	£65 (one-off fee)
	Departure	£35 (one-off fee)

We can arrange for airport transfers from Edinburgh Airport. You can choose to book both an arrival and departure transfer, or to book these separately.

On arrival: Students are met by an Edinburgh College staff member upon arrival at Edinburgh Airport. Staff will organise a private taxi transfer to the student's accommodation.

On departure: Staff will organise a private taxi transfer from the student's accommodation to Edinburgh Airport.

Travel Pass Service

We can arrange a travel card for students for free transport on Edinburgh buses (Lothian Buses) and Edinburgh Trams throughout their stay.

If the student has arranged an airport pick up, the card will be given to them upon arrival. If not, they will receive the card on their first day at College.

Refund Policy

The deposit / fee payment is refundable only where:

- a visa application is made following Edinburgh College and UKVI immigration guidelines, and the visa application is unsuccessful.

We do not usually make refunds in any other circumstances.

Documented evidence from (UKVI) of the visa refusal is required. Before a refund is confirmed, the College will check the reasons for refusal:

- a refund may be delayed or refused if a visa application does not follow UKVI Immigration Rules and Guidance, and Edinburgh College guidance on applying for a visa
- a refund may be delayed or refused if your visa application is refused as a result of providing documents which have not been checked by the International Team at Edinburgh College prior to your visa application
- no refund will be made if you have submitted fraudulent documents, or have used false or deceptive information with your visa or Edinburgh College application

The request for a refund should be made in writing to the College within 4 weeks of receiving the visa refusal. When a refund is confirmed, £200 of the deposit will be kept by the College to cover administration costs. The refund will normally take 2 - 4 weeks from request date.

If preferred, you may wish to request the deposit is held by the College for a deferred course.

Edinburgh College reserves the right to withdraw or modify any courses offered. If a course does not run we will try to provide an alternative. If a course is cancelled, fees will be refunded in full.

In instances where an unconditional offer is issued by Edinburgh College, but the student chooses not to take up their place of study at Edinburgh College, no refund will be given.

When a student is withdrawn from their course because of a determination made by Edinburgh College in relation to attendance issues, unsatisfactory or unacceptable behaviour or academic progression issues, no refund will be given.

Refunds on the basis of exceptional circumstances shall be considered by the Head of Commercial Development and may only be granted in extraordinary circumstances.

Where Edinburgh College's refund policy does not cover a particular circumstance, the Head of Commercial Development may consider an individual's case.

All requests for a refund based around exceptional circumstances must be made in writing and addressed to the Head of Commercial Development.

Students who have a financial sponsor should note that they will be liable for any unpaid tuition fee costs if the sponsor defaults on payment.

Where a student has a family member or employer who has agreed to cover tuition fees, Edinburgh College considers the student to be responsible for any financial liability to Edinburgh College.
